Mont Saint-Sauveur ENCORE the first resort to offer skiing in Quebec!

Saint-Sauveur, November 20th, 2010 - Mont Saint-Sauveur is awakening and carrying on the tradition. This year, the resort has once again established itself as the first hill to offer skiing in Quebec. Since the night from Thursday to Friday, the snow guns have been blowing, providing us with exceptional snow coverage. Thanks to a leading-edge snowmaking system and some major investments, the mountain didn't need to wait for a snowstorm to open its doors. ENCORE more snow under the boards!

The trail 70 OUEST is now ready for you, skiers and snowboarders with the L'Étoile chairlift.

Staff at Mont Saint-Sauveur says that as long as the weather keeps giving perfect conditions, snowmaking will go on and give more skiable terrain hour by hour. The official launch of 2010-2011 winter season will take place on:

- Saturday November 20th from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
- Sunday November 20th from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.
- The opening hours will be confirmed every day at noon for the next day.

We invite our customers to visit our website at mssi.ca to get informed about the latest ski conditions, hours of operation and rates. You can also reach us at 450.227.4671.

Mont Saint-Sauveur still offers the longest ski season in Quebec!
